

Lawn Tennis

WOMEN MAKE THINGS
HUM ON THE COURTS

New Jersey Champion Among Those to Win in Tourney at Montclair.

MISS FLEMING IN FORM

Miss Steiner and Miss Weber
Also Show Skill and Work
Their Way Through Two Rounds.

Miss Barbara Flemming and Miss Eugenie Steiner won their places in the fourth round of the lawn tennis cup singles yesterday in the annual tournament on the courts of the Montclair Athletic Club, at Montclair, N. J.

There was a spiritless affair about the play of Miss Flemming, who lives in Rahway, that was most captivating to the large gallery that sat about the courts at the opening of the great meeting, that has become one of the important features of the autumn season on the courts. Beginning in the second round, Miss Flemming defeated Miss Doris Goodbody, a niece of the famous English player, at 6-3, 2-6, 6-3. Then, to get into the round before the semi-finals, the Rahway girl overcame the plucky Miss Polly Sheldon after three slashing sets, at 6-4, 4-6, 6-4.

Miss Steiner revealed both stoutness and an ability to attain speed which easily carried her past her opponents. Miss Lela Scherer was her first opponent, and she was beaten after some lively sessions at fast driving, at 6-1, 6-4. Miss Steiner met Miss Hutchinson in her second contest. The latter failed to gauge the length of the court, and her propensity to over-drive her ball soon terminated the first set at love. Miss Hutchinson settled into her game in the second set, but Miss Steiner outplayed her in the rallies and won, at 6-2.

Mrs. Marshall McLean, who recently regained her holding of the New Jersey state title, rather easily won two matches. Her midcourt game was a glittering array of volley and "cross-court" drives which rarely failed to take the point. To the surprise of the spectators, Miss Edith Condit went down to defeat in the first match against Mrs. McLean, at 6-1, 6-0. Then Mrs. McLean defeated Miss Hazel Sawyer by a score of 6-0, 6-2.

For spectacular effects, none of the original field of forty-seven competitors surpassed Miss Alberta Weber, who played a series of matches. The Western girl hit hard. She was always on tiptoe for a "kill," so that in short order she defeated Mrs. Bishop, at 6-1, 6-1, and then Mrs. David C. Mills, at 6-0, 6-2.

Another of the younger players, Miss Beryl Sawyer, scored two victories by her steadiness in bringing off forehand shots. She began by defeating Miss Jessie Wright, at 6-4, 6-2, 6-2, and finished with Miss Marie Pierson, one of the local stars, at 6-4, 6-2, 6-1. Miss Sawyer played a total of five three games, a greater number than any other during the day.

Miss Florence Sheldon acted as referee, and kept the players going so well that the field was reduced to nineteen survivors in the singles. The doubles will begin to-day.

The summary follows:
Montclair women's cup singles (first round): Miss Barbara Flemming defeated Miss Lela Scherer, 6-1, 6-0; Miss Eugenie Steiner defeated Miss Dorothy Goodbody, 6-3, 2-6, 6-3; Miss Alberta Weber defeated Miss Doris Goodbody, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3; Miss Anna M. Sawyer defeated Miss Polly Sheldon, 6-4, 4-6, 6-4; Miss Edith Condit defeated Mrs. David C. Mills, 6-1, 6-0; Miss Hazel Sawyer defeated Mrs. Marshall McLean, 6-0, 6-2.

Second round: Miss Beryl Sawyer defeated Miss Marie Pierson, 6-2, 6-0; Miss Eugenie Steiner defeated Miss Dorothy Goodbody, 6-3, 2-6, 6-3; Miss Alberta Weber defeated Miss Doris Goodbody, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3; Miss Anna M. Sawyer defeated Miss Polly Sheldon, 6-4, 4-6, 6-4; Miss Edith Condit defeated Mrs. David C. Mills, 6-1, 6-0; Miss Hazel Sawyer defeated Mrs. Marshall McLean, 6-0, 6-2.

Third round: Miss Beryl Sawyer defeated Miss Marie Pierson, 6-2, 6-0; Miss Eugenie Steiner defeated Miss Dorothy Goodbody, 6-3, 2-6, 6-3; Miss Alberta Weber defeated Miss Doris Goodbody, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3; Miss Anna M. Sawyer defeated Miss Polly Sheldon, 6-4, 4-6, 6-4; Miss Edith Condit defeated Mrs. David C. Mills, 6-1, 6-0; Miss Hazel Sawyer defeated Mrs. Marshall McLean, 6-0, 6-2.

Fourth round: Miss Beryl Sawyer defeated Miss Marie Pierson, 6-2, 6-0; Miss Eugenie Steiner defeated Miss Dorothy Goodbody, 6-3, 2-6, 6-3; Miss Alberta Weber defeated Miss Doris Goodbody, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3; Miss Anna M. Sawyer defeated Miss Polly Sheldon, 6-4, 4-6, 6-4; Miss Edith Condit defeated Mrs. David C. Mills, 6-1, 6-0; Miss Hazel Sawyer defeated Mrs. Marshall McLean, 6-0, 6-2.

BOXER STUDYING MEDICINE

Al Reich Said To Be Nearly Perfect as to Build.

Al Reich, former amateur heavyweight champion, who knocked out Sallor White last week and is matched to box ten rounds with Carl Morris in Madison Square Garden on Friday night, is not only an all-round athlete, but also a student of medicine and surgery.

Reich is studying in the office of Dr. W. G. Froelich, who performed a successful operation on Frank Chance, the manager of the New York Americans, last fall. Dr. Froelich says that Reich is one of the most perfectly developed men he has ever seen, and believes that the young athlete will soon be the world's champion heavyweight pugilist.

Reich has several wealthy sporting men behind him, among them Max Bauman, once a bookmaker, who has been preparing the big fellow for his ring career. Professor James De Forest, the veteran boxing instructor, has been engaged to train Reich, who is getting ready for Morris at Alhambra, N. Y.

Three ten-round bouts will be boxed at the Atlantic Garden Athletic Club to-night, and in the leader Bert Fagan, the middleweight of Los Angeles, will meet "Young" Ahern, of good record, and Scotty Monteth, who manages him, declares that he has won eighteen out of his twenty-six bouts by knockouts. In the second contest Larry English will meet Johnny Howard, and in the other Tommy Bergin will renew hostilities with Bill Anderson.

BENTON VICTOR ON COURTS.

Cleveland, Sept. 15.—Charles O. Benton, of this city, won the Ohio State lawn tennis championship to-day in the men's singles, defeating A. F. Reed, also of this city, 6-0, 6-2, 6-3. Fred H. Harris, of Brattleboro, Vt., the champion, was sick and unable to participate in a challenge round.

College Football

Golf Players Tee
Up for Open Title

Vardon, His Brother Tom and Fovargue Play Great Practice Round.

'CHICK' EVANS OUT OF RACE

Record Field to Begin Contests
To-day in Big Tournament
Over Historic Course at Brookline.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]
Boston, Sept. 15.—Professional and amateur golfers, the best in the land, put on the finishing touches to their training for the national open championship tournament which starts to-morrow morning over the links of the Country Club, at Brookline. Although he was on the winning side in a six-ball match this morning, Harry Vardon, of South Herts, England, was not feeling well, and decided to lay off in the afternoon.

The affair in which Vardon took part had the former champion, his brother Tom and Walter Fovargue on one side, opposing Ted Ray, Jack Crooke and Willie Leth. There was something worth looking at from start to finish, first one and then another making a spectacular shot. The Vardons and Fovargue won the match by 1 up.

Jerome D. Travers, the national amateur champion, arrived here this morning, and after playing a few holes got into a four-ball match after luncheon. He had Jack Hobbs, of Englewood, for a partner against Alec Smith and George Cummins, one of the Canadian representative. Travers and Hobbs had a best ball that was equal or better than that of practically every hole, with the result that the pair in question defeated Smith and Cummins handsly.

John J. McDermott, the national open champion, who has been here for several days, trying to get the course down fine, played around steadily, though not brilliantly. He had 77 in the morning and 78 this afternoon. Tom McNamara also had a 77, while M. J. Brady covered the course in 76.

Johnny Dowling, the Scarsdale home-bred, who was credited with a 69 from the short tee the other day, teamed up with George Simpson, one of the best of the Western "pros," against Alec Smith and Peter Robertson in the morning. Dowling was not going at any 69 pace, but his golf was sound, and if he keeps it up he will be likely to land among the leaders. Dowling and Simpson won by 2 up.

It is expected that nearly all of the entrants will start. One absentee, however, will be Charles W. Evans, Jr., of Chicago. This brilliant amateur sent word to-day that it would be impossible for him to compete. Robert C. Watson, president of the United States Golf Association, who is in New York on Sunday night, arrived on the links this morning. He was favorably impressed with the condition of the course, which has been stiffened considerably since the amateurs competed for the title here in 1910.

HARMONY PREVAILS AT MEETING OF ATHLETES

James E. Sullivan Re-elected President with Former
A. A. U. Officers.

Officers, delegates and managers of the Metropolitan Association of the Amateur Athletic Union met at the Hotel Cross Lyceum, No. 22 West 43d street, last night. In the absence of James E. Sullivan, the president, on his way home from Europe, Frederick W. Rubien, vice-president, presided. As soon as the roll had been called, a printed copy of the committee reports were adopted with a few minor changes.

The officers, with the exception of the registration committee, were all slated for re-election. There were no other or rival candidates in the field. Thus James E. Sullivan was again elected president; F. W. Rubien, vice-president; Andrew F. Tully, secretary-treasurer; James E. Sullivan, B. S. Weeks, F. V. J. Delaney, T. Farley, P. J. Walsh and F. W. Rubien, delegates to the National Amateur Athletic Union, and Herman Oberbuehling, official handicapper.

Resolutions were introduced and adopted calling on all athletes in the city to vote for and help in the election of James E. Sullivan and Bartow S. Weeks to the office of County Clerk and Supreme Court Judge, respectively. The first named is president of the Metropolitan Association of the Amateur Athletic Union. Both of these men have been nominated on the Democratic ticket.

The reports of the various committees were read and adopted. The treasurer's account showed a balance in four banks of $2,999.00. A loss during the year of $111.90 was shown in the report.

Resolutions were adopted expressing regret at the death of William J. Gaynor. Jeremiah Mahoney, of the New York Athletic Club, wrote the resolutions. The charges brought against James M. Connolly, a member of the registration committee, caused much discussion and delay of proceedings, but not sustained. Connolly was a strong reply ready to the affidavit of Thomas F. Corley, of the Knights of St. Anthony, while the latter produced a jumbled mess when called upon to defend himself. Corley declared that two other athletic enthusiasts were present when Connolly made the alleged overtures to him, but they were not on hand in his support.

Eight candidates, in addition to the three members of last year's registration committee, were in the field to fill the two extra places. On the first ballot taken Jake W. Stumpf, of the Grace Athletic Club; George P. Matthews, of the Long Island Athletic Club; and John M. Connolly, of the 3d Naval Battalion, who represented the board during the last year, were re-elected. Charles A. Elbert, of the Anchor Athletic Club, of Jersey City; John J. Diagan, St. Bartholomew's Athletic Club, were elected to places on the committee, the latter on a second ballot.

A vote was taken instructing the delegates to the national convention to endeavor to have the tug-of-war added to the list of championships. The report of Secretary-Treasurer Tully showed that the boxing and wrestling championships were the only sports to produce a profit, it being $10 and $15, respectively.

The gymnastic championship showed a loss of $25.20. The Junior Croquet show a loss of $21.16, and the senior $23.42. The total disbursements were $2,342.22, which included $70.13 spent by the registration board.

Three ten-round bouts will be boxed at the Atlantic Garden Athletic Club to-night, and in the leader Bert Fagan, the middleweight of Los Angeles, will meet "Young" Ahern, of good record, and Scotty Monteth, who manages him, declares that he has won eighteen out of his twenty-six bouts by knockouts. In the second contest Larry English will meet Johnny Howard, and in the other Tommy Bergin will renew hostilities with Bill Anderson.

GRANDFATHERS ON LINKS

Players To Be Handicapped by Number of Grandchildren.

Chicago, Sept. 15.—A novel golf tournament will be played on Wednesday, when grandfathers of the Homewood Country Club will vie for honors. The event was once postponed through the influence of prospective grandfathers.

Unless visits of the stork make players members eligible, thirty-four players will enter. Each has been invited to bring a guest, who also must be a grandfather. Each contestant will be allowed half a stroke for each grandchild produced at the tee.

NEWARK'S HOLD ON PENNA. SLIPPING

Rochester Still Has Much to Do, However, to Capture the Flag.

The Newark Indians have been slipping and sliding so badly of late that it looked like a race, even a commanding lead in the race for the International League pennant has dwindled down to one and a half games.

Rochester in the mean time has been climbing so steadily that it looks as if the honors might be snatched from Newark on the tape, so to speak. The up-state team still has a hard row to hoe, as the cold figures show.

If the Indians win only three of the seven games still left on the schedule, Rochester must win five out of six to clinch the flag. This is not improbable, but it is no easy task.

Thomas J. Lynch, president of the National League, announced yesterday that he had hired Joe Tinker, manager of the Cincinnati club and Marvynville, shortstop of the Boston club, $50, and Myers, first baseman, also of the Boston team, $100 for fighting on the field in the first game of the double-header in Cincinnati last Saturday.

Tinker also was suspended three days for using abusive language to O'Day, the umpire.

Fred Payne, the former Baltimore catcher, was re-engaged as manager of the Syracuse club of the New York State League, yesterday.

Shanks, the clever outfielder of the Washington Senators, injured his ankle yesterday sliding to second base and is not likely to play again this season.

"Smoky Joe" Wood and Captain Wagner signed contracts yesterday to play with the Red Sox next year. Last winter Wood was one of the most persistent "hold outs" and did not come to terms until after the training season began. It is a different story this time. He has been producing little help to his team this year on account of injuries, and consequently was not so keen in demanding more money.

Walter Leverenz, the star young south-paw of the St. Louis Browns, will accompany the Chicago White Sox on their tour around the world.

George Mullin, the former star of the Detroit pitching staff, who dropped out of the majors last spring, is pitching semi-professional ball in Detroit. Frank Howman, the former New York catcher, is his battery mate.

Ralph Comstock, the $12,000 beauty of the Tigers, resembles George Mullin at the Polo Grounds, who saw the youngster thought that Mullin was back with Detroit.

Comstock and Gibson, the catcher from Nashville, who joined the Tigers last week, have yet to overcome the habits they contracted in the minors. They have contracted the two youngsters emerged from the bench and began warming up in front of the grandstand, near the Detroit dugout. In some minor league parks, where space in the outfield is limited, warming up near the benches is allowed, but Sheridan, the umpire, scowled yesterday and waved them back to the bench after they had thrown a few balls.

FIRST GAME IN CINCINNATI.

Cincinnati, Sept. 15.—Charles Comiskey, president of the Chicago American League, announced to-night that the first game of the tour of the world which the New York National and the Chicago American teams will make this year will be played in this city on October 15.

From this city the two clubs will proceed westward by easy stages to the Pacific Coast.

BRITISH OLYMPIC PHALANX
Fund Asked for Athletic Army
Expenses for Berlin Games.

[By Cable to The Tribune.]
London, Sept. 15.—The approximate size of the Olympic athletic team which England hopes to send to Berlin in 1916 was disclosed to-day among the details published at length as to the proposed expenditure of $500,000, which the public is asked to subscribe in order to regain British laurels in sport.

The statement says that at least five hundred athletes will be sent to Berlin a fortnight before the beginning of the meeting, and that $75,000 of the fund will be wanted to defray their expenses.

Another $170,000 is to be distributed before 1916 among nine of the leading athletic associations of the realm in sums ranging from $80,000 down to $4,000, to be expended for the purposes attendant upon the expenses of necessary preliminary training.

There will be further unstated expenditures necessary for central training quarters, the salaries of chief and under trainers, and for the establishment of subsidiary local training quarters at various points in the kingdom.

There also will be the necessity of fitting these places with apparatus and to properly equip the fields and indoor training quarters with the most modern types of athletic paraphernalia.

RECORD FALLS ON RANGES

Capt. Richard Hits Bull's-Eye
at 500 Yards 24 Times.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]
Sea Girt, Sept. 15.—Captain W. H. Richard, of Ohio, broke the world's record to-day at Sea Girt, shooting at a sixteen-inch bull's-eye at five hundred yards.

The event was the General E. P. Meany match, ten shots to each man, those making perfect scores to keep on shooting until they failed to find the bull's-eye. Captain Richard really made a 24 bull's-eye total, but only 23 were counted, the first being a slighting shot.

The others who made high scores in the match were Corporal R. V. Moore, United States Marine Corps, 17; Sergeant C. B. Long, Massachusetts, 17; Sergeant C. H. Martin, Marine Corps, 17; Sergeant C. R. Robinson, 15th United States Cavalry, 10; and Major W. S. Price, of New Jersey, 10.

AMHERST SQUAD PRACTICE

Hobbs Drills Football Players, with Captain McGay Punting.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]
Amherst, Mass., Sept. 15.—Heine Hobbs, tackle on Ted Coy's unbeaten Yale team of 1910, took charge of football practice at Amherst College this afternoon with thirty men on the squad. Hobbs is hopeful for a successful season.

The squad is made up of a number of veterans, only three men having been lost from last year's eleven. Working with such a nucleus, Hobbs is confident of winning a fair majority of the games. A cheerful aspect is given to prospects by the appearance of Curry and Kimball, of the 1911 team, who have passed off conditions and are now eligible.

Captain McGay is in excellent condition and is punting well. From last year's freshman team five good men will make the veterans hustle. Ashley, Rider and Knowlton are fast men out for the half-back position left open by the graduation of Captain Connolly. Tow, the all-scholastic quarterback of New York, is making a strong bid for quarter and will keep Hubbard, last year's star, on the jump.

PENN SQUAD HAS WORKOUT

Journey and MacNaughton
Get Into First Drill.

Philadelphia, Sept. 15.—Thirty-four candidates for the University of Pennsylvania football team had their first workout to-day under the direction of George H. Brooke. From now until the college opens drill will be held twice daily. The practice was largely devoted to punting.

Al Journey and "Tub" MacNaughton, the two husky guards who distinguished themselves in last year's varsity eleven, were among those who reported.

PRINCETON HARD AT WORK

Andrews and Bluetenthal Pick Players for Varsity Team.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]
Princeton, N. J., Sept. 15.—The first varsity eleven of the season was picked to-day by the coaches, Andrews and Bluetenthal, from the squad of thirty-five players, who were out in logs on Osborne Field.

The beginning of the second week of practice found the squad swelled by a dozen new recruits who arrived in town this morning. With three veterans from last year's varsity forming a nucleus, the team ran through a fast signal drill lasting half an hour.

While there were a few miscues, the team reeled off their elementary plays with satisfying regularity and speed. Scrimmage will start on Wednesday if the cool weather prevails.

The condition in which Keene Fitzpatrick has the squad at present will warrant heavy work marked advancement in form on the part of the players. The line-up to-day was as follows:

H. Brown, left end; Phillips, left tackle; Heyniger, left guard; Haviland, center; Swart, right guard; Ballin, right tackle; Hammond, right end; S. Baker, Boland, Emmons, quarterback; H. Baker, left halfback; Glick, right halfback; and Glick, fullback.

BROWN MEN ON GRIDIRON

Thirty Candidates for Eleven
Report for First Practice.

Providence, Sept. 15.—Nearly thirty candidates for the Brown University football team reported to Edward N. Robinson today for their first practice.

Among the veterans in the squad were Captain Henry and Bean, backs; Mitchell, Gelb and Maxwell, guards; Andrews, end, and Bartlett, who played in both the back field and the line last season.

O'BRIEN TO COACH VERMONT.

Burlington, Vt., Sept. 15.—The athletic committee of the University of Vermont announced to-day the appointment of Jere J. O'Brien as coach for the football team.

HARVARD TURNS
BIG FOOTBALL SQUAD

Percy Haughton, Head Coach, and Bob Storer Put Men
Through Drill.

OLD PLAYERS ALL IN LINE

Hardwick and Brickley Report for Back Field, and the Crimson's Chances
Loom Brightly.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]
Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 15.—Harvard's football season opened auspiciously this afternoon, when sixty-five candidates reported to Percy D. Haughton, the head coach, and Captain Bob Storer on Soldiers' Field, this being the largest squad on record.

Thirty of these candidates were immediately designated as the first squad, on which practically are all of the men who stand much of a chance to make the varsity team either as regular players or substitutes. The veterans all seem heavier than a year ago, and the material, on the whole, looks even better than it was last year.

All five of the varsity linemen were on hand, these men being Trumbull and Pennock, guards; Hitchcock and Storer, tackles, and O'Brien, end. For the backfield Hardwick and Brickley both were up. Tudor Gardiner, tackle two years ago, who may be an end rush this fall, will not report until a week from to-day.

Two prominent candidates, however, were missing, these being Wigglesworth, last year's substitute center, and Weatherhead, a heavy end rush. Wigglesworth injured his back last summer and will not be able to play football, while Weatherhead will not return to college. It is possible that Wigglesworth will coach the freshmen eleven.

Broderick and Mahan, two promising backs, will be rivals for quarterback. One or the other doubtless will be the regular man, rather than either Logan or Freedley, of last year's squad, and Watson, of the freshmen, Rollins, a freshman end, is another likely candidate for quarter.

The work to-day was rudimentary, of course, but there was a lot of it. The tackling dummies were not used, but the men fell on the ball, practiced starts and did a lot of passing. Later the squad was divided according to positions, which showed plenty of back field, center and end men, but not so much for guards and tackles.

Haughton was assisted by Leo Leary and Bob Fisher, who, with Dick Wigglesworth, when he comes, will comprise the coaching staff. Other coaches on the field to-day were Paul Wiltinton, ex-Captain Wendell, Fenner, last year's center, and Campbell, halfback two seasons ago. All of these men will help this fall, and until college opens next week will be in charge of the morning practice.

Among the likely looking candidates to-day were Gilman, of last year's freshman men, who, with Soucy, was in the squad of center rushes; Coolidge, Smith and Dana, three ends; Miniholland, who showed a lot of promise as a drop kicker last year, and Willeits, whose punting last fall was the best at Cambridge outside that of Felton.

Harvard's squad not only is large, but is the likeliest looking that has appeared on Soldiers' Field in years. Visiting the stadium this afternoon were the German athletic commissioners, who to-morrow will go to New Haven, and later to Princeton and Pennsylvania.

THE WEATHER BUREAU.

Official Record and Forecast.—Washington, Sept. 14.—The disturbance that was over Louisiana Sunday night has moved to Western Arkansas with diminished energy and the rains, while continuing, heavily in the South, have extended into the Ohio and middle Mississippi valleys. Conditions were also unsettled and showery in the Rocky Mountain region and the Northwest, while in the extreme West and from the lake region eastward the weather was fair.

It is very warm for the season in California, but elsewhere low temperatures prevail as a rule.

Heavy to killing frosts occurred Monday morning in New England and New York and light frost in Pennsylvania.

There will be rain Tuesday in the great central valleys and the south Atlantic states, and rain Tuesday night or Wednesday in the southern upper lake and the lower lake region and the middle Atlantic states. There will also be local showers Tuesday in the plains states and the central Rocky Mountain region, followed by generally fair weather Wednesday. In the Northeast and extreme West the weather will be generally fair Tuesday and Wednesday and on Wednesday in the South. Temperature changes will not be decided, although it will be somewhat warmer Wednesday in the South.

The winds along the north Atlantic coast will be moderate east to southeast; middle Atlantic coast, moderate east to northeast; south Atlantic coast, moderate to brisk northeast; east Gulf coast and west Gulf coast, moderate southeast and south; on the lower lakes, moderate east and southeast; upper lakes, light to moderate variable.

Forecast for Special Localities.—For Eastern New York, fair and slightly warmer to-day; to-morrow unsettled, probably rain, with moderate east to southeast winds.

For Southern New England, fair and slightly warmer to-day; to-morrow unsettled, probably rain, with moderate east to southeast winds.

Local Official Record.—The following official record from the Weather Bureau shows the changes in the temperature for the last twenty-four hours, in comparison with the corresponding date of last year:

1912 1913
2 a. m. 69 62
5 a. m. 68 60
8 a. m. 68 60
11 a. m. 68 60
2 p. m. 68 60
5 p. m. 68 60
8 p. m. 68 60
11 p. m. 68 60

Night temperature yesterday, 64 degrees (at 10 p. m.); lowest, 62; average, 62. Average for corresponding date last year, 74; average for corresponding date last three years, 74.

Local Forecast: Fair and slightly warmer to-day; unsettled and probably rain to-morrow, with moderate east to southeast winds.

Night temperature yesterday, 64 degrees (at 10 p. m.); lowest, 62; average, 62. Average for corresponding date last year, 74; average for corresponding date last three years, 74.

Local Forecast: Fair and slightly warmer to-day; unsettled and probably rain to-morrow, with moderate east to southeast winds.

Night temperature yesterday, 64 degrees (at 10 p. m.); lowest, 62; average, 62. Average for corresponding date last year, 74; average for corresponding date last three years, 74.

GARRETT HEIRS PROTEST

Want Broker to Share $22-
000,000 Legacy with Them.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]
Philadelphia, Sept. 15.—The fight of the ten relatives of Miss Julia Garrett for possession of the $22,000,000 estate left by her practically in its entirety to Isaac T. Staff, her broker, took on a new phase to-day.

It was learned this evening that the relatives would ask a compromise on the basis that Staff could be named as an executor of the estate of the aged spinster and divide the estate into eleven equal parts. Rejection of this offer, it was stated, would probably result in a long legal fight and might tie the big estate up in the courts for years.

ARMY AND NAVY ORDERS.

[From The Tribune Bureau.]
Washington, September 15.
ORDERS ISSUED.—The following army and navy orders have been issued:

ARMY.
Colonel HENRY C. DAVIS, coast artillery, assigned command Fort Mills and coast defenses of Manila, July 15, 1913.

Colonel JOHN L. CHAMBERLAIN, inspector general, assigned inspector, and Major GEORGE C. STORER, quartermaster, assigned quartermaster, 3d Division, Captain CHARLES L. FISHER, coast artillery, from 7th to 3d Division, October 1.

Captain MARION S. RATTLE, coast artillery, from 10th to 9th Company.

Captain HERBERT E. ENOCHS, assigned 27th Infantry, from 27th to 14th Company.

Captain ALEXANDER J. MACNAB, 14th Infantry, from army infantry team to proper Fort Rosecrans.

First Lieutenant THOMAS W. BURNETT, medical corps, from Fort Case, assigned Fort Rosecrans.

Second Lieutenant HERBERT C. FOOKS, 19th Infantry, detailed professor military science, University of Idaho, October 1.

Leaves of absence: First Lieutenant EDWIN H. RACKLEY, Philippine Scouts, two months on expiration leave of absence; First Lieutenant PERRY M. GALLUP, coast artillery, one month.

NAVY.
Lieutenant Commander G. E. LANDENBERGER, 6th and Lieutenant H. B. KELLY, 6th, assigned to the Annapolis, Md., for duty.